

55 Programs in New York State

8,053 Students enrolled

39% of enrolled students were new to CSTEP for the 2017-18 program year

50% of additional students have been enrolled since the current program cycle began (2015-16 program year)

48% of students reported as 'First Generation'

81% of enrolled students identify as having become first matriculated in college as of 2014

16% of students were previously enrolled in another NYSED Opportunity Program: CSTEP, STEP, LPP, Smart Scholars or P-TECH

9% are concurrently enrolled in EOP/HEOP

1% are concurrently enrolled in College Discovery/SEEK

A total of 1,797 students graduated. Of those students, the top 2 degrees received were:

- 74% - Bachelor's Degree
- 21% - Associate's Degree

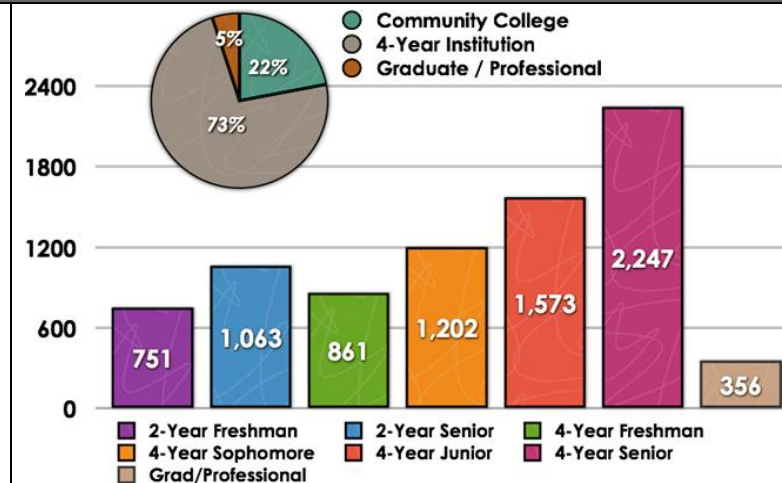

Students participated in 1,126 Research activities, totaling 212,868 hours

Students participated 894 Internship activities, totaling 216,985 hours

2017-2018 COLLEGIATE SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY ENTRY PROGRAM

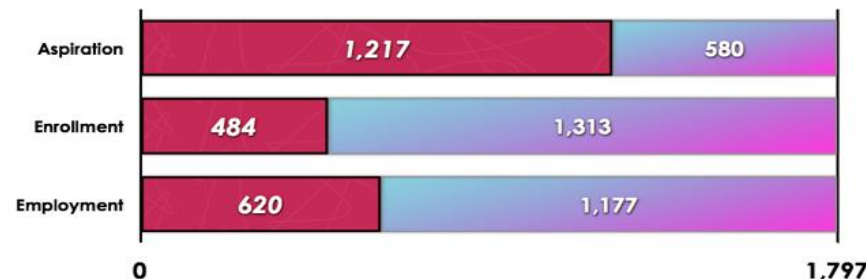

CSTEP MISSION: The purpose of the Collegiate Science and Technology Entry Program is to increase the number of historically under-represented minorities and economically disadvantaged undergraduate & graduate students who complete pre-professional or professional education programs that lead to professional licensure & careers in math, science, technology, & health-related fields.

Student Enrollment Details

Graduating Student Details

Those who aspire to further their education and/or have enrolled in a post-secondary institution, and those who are seeking employment:

For those graduates who indicated an aspiration to further their education, the three most frequently sought degrees were a Bachelor's (35%), Master's (39%) and Doctorate (22%).

The areas of interest for those graduating students who have provided the field in which they are pursuing:

