

New York State
Disability Services Council

With regard to Board of Regents topics of concern, specifically, “Strengthening connections between Higher Education and P-12,”:

The NYSDSC advocates for concrete revisions that strengthen the existing mandated transition planning for students with disabilities to ensure that students are knowledgeable about their disability, understand their strengths and functional limitations in an academic setting, and are familiar with assistive technology, resulting in improved academic readiness and strong self advocacy skills.