TAP Application Processing

Residency

HESC makes initial determination based on:

1) History

- Was student denied/pending in a previous year?

2) FAFSA DATA

- Student's date of residence
- Parents' state of residence (for dependent students)
- Student's address not New York State

Residency

HESC can question residency post-application processing due to:

- Income Verification with NYS Department of Taxation and Finance: student/spouse/parent filed NYS IT-203 tax return;
- ISIR address changes will update TAP record- if address changes to out-of-state address, student's residency will be questioned.

Residency

School must question residency (decertify or notify HESC) if:

- ❖ Parental data on file indicates parents are not New York State residents (for dependent students);
- ❖ Student's high school diploma is not from a New York State school.

Residency

❖ How to inform HESC:

- DocTrac
- Student Record Maintenance

❖ Please let HESC know why you are questioning residency.

Income Verification Process (IVP)

- ❖ HESC attempts to verify every SSN (student, spouse, parents) on every student record
- ❖ IVP begins in May for new processing year
- ❖ IVP is then processed every week until application processing deadline (June 30)
- ❖ Information on verification provided on View Student Record, Student Status Lists

Verification of Income Adjustment Claim (VIAC)

- ❖ Income used to calculate TAP eligibility can be adjusted for other family members (OC) attending college full time
  - for dependent students: sibling, spouse, parent
  - for independent students: spouse, children
- ❖ Application process collects OC name, SSN, relationship to applicant
  - must be full time for at least one term, can attend out of state

VIAC

- ❖ HESC needs signature sign off for all OC (one time only) to send information regarding the OC to the Clearinghouse to verify enrollment
- ❖ Clearinghouse verifies full-time enrollment; if not found or found less than full time, OC will be deleted and award recalculated (spring)

❖ Important Considerations

- For school use only
- Use cover sheet to list all documents faxed
- If documentation is insufficient to process award, student and school will be notified of additional documentation required
