

COURSEWORK OR TRAINING IN HARASSMENT, BULLYING, CYBERBULLYING,
AND DISCRIMINATION IN SCHOOLS: PREVENTION AND INTERVENTION

INSTRUCTOR QUALIFICATIONS FORM

Instructions: Each proposed instructor must complete all sections of this form and provide information specific to their professional work experiences, educational preparation, and professional training experiences relevant to harassment, bullying, cyberbullying, and discrimination in schools: prevention and intervention (Dignity Act)

Section 1: Instructor Information

Instructor's Name
Current Employment
Title:
Job Duties:
Current Employer Name:
Current Employer Address:

Faculty and educational specialists who offer the course work or training must have demonstrated by training, earned degrees, and at least five years of experience, their competence to offer the course work or training. They must have specialized training in harassment, bullying, cyberbullying, and discrimination in schools: prevention and intervention, or shall have demonstrated, in other widely recognized ways, their specialized knowledge in the area of harassment, bullying, cyberbullying, and discrimination in schools: prevention and intervention, as determined by the department [Section 57-4.3(b)(2)]

Section 2: Professional Work Experiences In The Elements Of The Dignity Act:

Provide a description of your professional work experiences with school aged children involving the elements of the Dignity Act, including dates and/or years of experience.

Section 3: Educational Preparation In The Elements Of The Dignity Act:

Institution Name	Location	Course Description	Degree

Section 4: Professional Training Experiences In The Elements Of The Dignity Act:

Provide name and location of experience/workshop/conference/training	Attended	Led

Section 5: New York State License/Certificate (If Any):

License/Certificate Name or Professional Area	License/Certificate Number